Promotion of Eco-Tourism

741. SHRI SURENDRA LATH: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have a proposal to introduce a country-wide programme to promote Eco-tourism;

(b) if so, by when the programme would be implemented;

(c) whether any State has taken any step in this regard with the assistance of Government;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) the programme drawn up by Government in this regard for 2003-04?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI JAGMOHAN): (a) and (b) The Government have announced a National Tourism Policy in the year 2002 wherein greater emphasis has been laid on promotion of eco-tourism whose parameters have been made broader than those of nature tourism. Eco-tourism must help in eliminating poverty, in ending unemployment, in creating new skills, in enhancing the status of women, in preserving cultural heritage, in encouraging tribal and local crafts and in improving overall environment and facilitating growth of a more just and fair social order.

The Government have also set up a National Committee on Eco-tourism and Mountains to work out details for managing the fragile Eco-system and to consider projects/programmes for development of Eco-tourism in the country.

(c) and (d) Some of the State Governments like Sikkim, Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh and Maharashtra have implemented unique Eco-tourism projects in their States with assistance from Central Department of Tourism.
